

ASIAWEEK
REDEFINING BUSINESS

20

Reform or reflate the economy? That is Koizumi's tough choice

APR POD

THREE SIXTY°

- 6 FEEDBACK Rooting for Hong Kong
- 8 HOME PAGE ASEAN tries to jump on the China bandwagon
- 10 THE WEEK Indonesia goes begging; Tanaka stumbles; Singapore votes
- 12 SCENE&HERD Benazir Bhutto plots a return to Pakistan; Malaysia's passion for Viagra
- 14 HOT SYNC Japanese concept cars; Bangkok women's love for gay amour
- 18 DOUBLETAKE Disreputable or not, adultery should not be criminalized
- 19 PODIUM Fair labor practices: the face of America?

Muslim Southeast Asia's tradition of tolerance is being tested. The region has a lot to lose if moderates don't prevail

YAN CHEN FOR ASIaweek

DATELINE

- 20 JAPAN Prime Minister Junichiro Koizumi's credibility is on the line as he tries to reform and prop up a rapidly eroding economy
- 22 THAILAND Anger after a politician's son is involved in a cop-killing

COVER STORY

- 24 ISLAM Why the moderates will win out in the struggle for Islam's soul
- 28 Education Not all Islamic schools are breeding grounds for radical jihadis
- 29 Family Emotional divisions within one Islamabad household reflect the schisms racking Pakistan at large

24
COVER STORY

ENTERPRISE

- 32 AUTOMOBILES Renault's ambition to revive Samsung Motors rests on persuading Korean employees to embrace French management culture
- 35 BANKS In China, a host of small players show the big guys how it's done
- 36 HEALTH The fight to woo Asia's sick rich sees medical centers transforming into five-star luxury hotels
- 40 Pioneer A U.S.-backed hospital is blazing the trail for foreign health-care providers in China
- 42 E-BUSINESS Local-language websites are both convenient and profitable
- 44 BITSTREAM Microsoft's antitrust saga takes another bizarre twist; Japan's thriving start-ups

COVER: KEMAL JUFRI - IMAJI FOR ASIaweek

Is this a hospital or a hotel? Both. Luxury medical centers are doing healthy business in Asia

PHILIP MOHAN FOR ASIaweek

36

LIFE

- 46 BOOK Exploring disappearing Tibetan architecture with The Lhasa Atlas

YOUR SPACE

- 48 MONEY Why gold, oil and natural resources can be good for your portfolio
- 51 INSIDE TRACK India, Asia's other safe haven after China
- 56 POWER USER Apple's iPod music player looks a hit; a media player that wants to be a Web browser
- 57 TRAVEL LOG Melaka's charming multicultural magic; Hangzhou's famous bomb shelter
- 58 BACKTALK Namu Yang, minority guru for China's young women