

THE FUTURIST

A magazine of forecasts, trends, and ideas about the future

Civilization's prospects.
Page 14

ARTICLES

14 On Dark Ages

By Nader ElFehaymy

Is Western civilization in the midst of, a historic decline, or are we merely hypochondriacs?

Plus:

Is the United States Bound for Collapse?

By Lewis Lapham

Imperial Parallels

*An interview with Colleen Murphy
by Patrick Tucker*

23 Toward a Global Rule of Law: A Practical Step toward World Peace

By Joseph N. Pelton

Amid today's clashing cultures, the need for a global rule of law has become increasingly urgent. The good news is that a practical first step has been taken.

51 Thinking Globally, Acting Locally, Living Personally

By Cynthia G. Wagner

The exuberance of youth tempered by the perspective of experience made for a practical, action-oriented atmosphere at WorldFuture 2007.

68 SCENARIO: Predicting Panic

When does a crowd become a mob? And what can public safety and security professionals do to predict, prevent, or control it? A geographer shows how motion and emotion mix.

DEPARTMENTS

2 Tomorrow in Brief

Sunspots as Prediction Tool
Modeling Our Minds
Plastic Blood
Guilt-Free Food Indulgence
Save the Snakes!

4 Feedback

41 Salute to Contributors

50 Consultants and Services

BOOKS

60 The Futurist Bookshelf

62 Methods for Thinking about the Future

A book review by Patrick Tucker

Practicing foresight experts Andy Hines and Peter Bishop lay out guidelines for strategic-thinking professionals in Thinking about the Future: Guidelines for Strategic Foresight.

Cover Story

29 Outlook 2008

The World Future Society's annual round-up of thought-provoking forecasts.

43 The Search for Foresight: Future Shock and the Magic of the Future

By Edward Cornish

The founding president recounts the World Future Society's experiments in new programs, such as a forum on energy, a workshop for teachers, and a tour of Scandinavia.

The Futurist's first color cover.
Page 43

WORLD TRENDS & FORECASTS

6 Technology

The Energy of the Mob

7 Government

Tracking Government Performance

8 Environment

Is Clean Coal Feasible?

10 Society

Iraqi Values Shift toward the secular

12 Economics

Rich and Richer, Poor and Poorer

13 Demography

Rise in Number of Skin Cancer Cases